The result of the vote was announced as above recorded.

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

CHILDREN'S SAFETY AND VIOLENT CRIME REDUCTION ACT

(Ms. GINNY BROWN-WAITE of Florida asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend her remarks.)

Ms. GINNY BROWN-WAITE of Florida. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to praise the House for having passed H.R. 4472.

This is a very bittersweet moment for me. Passage of the bill should bring a sense of accomplishment, but as I think of little Jessica Lunsford, only tears come to my eyes.

Today, she would be doing her summer reading, going to the movies with friends, and enjoying the last few weeks of summer before school begins. Instead, a perverted criminal assaulted, murdered and then buried her in his backyard and robbed her of those moments.

He could do that because law enforcement and parents did not have the tools that they needed at the time to protect children. With the passage of the Children's Safety and Violent Crime Act, they will.

I cannot imagine the suffering and total terror she must have felt at the hands of so vile a monster, and Congress cannot afford to wait one day longer for this bill to become law.

I certainly look forward to the signing ceremony at the White House so parents will know that their children are much better protected because the laws are stronger against sexual offenders and predators.

HONORING MAJOR LEAGUE HALL OF FAMER BOB FELLER

(Mr. BROWN of Ohio asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. BROWN of Ohio. Mr. Speaker, I rise today in support of House Concurrent Resolution 449 honoring Major League Baseball Hall of Famer Bob Feller.

Bursting onto the baseball scene in 1936, he immediately became the American League's dominant pitcher. A Cleveland Indian throughout his 18-year career, Feller broke record after record, including three no-hitters and 12 one-hitters, and he pitched on opening day a no-hitter.

My older brother Charlie heard a great story about Feller's blazing speed. Bob Feller and the Indians were playing the Yankees in the 1930s, and New York's Lefty Gomez was on deck. As he approached the plate, Gomez lit a match. The umpire said, Come on, Lefty, it's not too late. You can still see just fine. Gomez pointed to Feller and said, That's not what I'm worried about. I just want him to see me.

Feller's baseball career may have been even more stellar had he not been such a patriot. He was one of the first Major League players to enlist after Pearl Harbor, losing four seasons to war-time service as a combat sailor in the U.S. Navy. He never regretted that choice. Feller told a fan last year, The only win I wanted was to win World War II.

I join my colleagues in supporting House Concurrent Resolution 449, celebrating Bob Feller, a monumental figure in Ohio, a baseball icon and an American patriot.

THANKING SPEAKER HASTERT
FOR VISITING THE TEXAS BORDER

(Mr. CARTER asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. CARTER. Mr. Speaker, I rise to thank Speaker DENNY HASTERT for coming to Texas this weekend to look at the situation on the Texas border and bringing a bipartisan delegation with him. The information that he received I think is invaluable for this House.

I am proud of the fact that our Speaker goes out and goes to the areas where the crises are so that he can have a good view of what is going on. He was a great leader there. He was able to get information from these folks that showed that the borders have got to be defended and defended now.

I am grateful for his attendance in Texas, and I am sure Arizona is, also.

SPECIAL ORDERS

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Under the Speaker's announced policy of January 4, 2005, and under a previous order of the House, the following Members will be recognized for 5 minutes each.

GAS PRICES

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Under a previous order of the House, the gentleman from Oregon (Mr. DEFAZIO) is recognized for 5 minutes.

Mr. DEFAZIO. Mr. Speaker, well, today, gas prices since the price gouging post-Katrina climbed back over $3 a gallon average across the country, almost as high as on September 5 of last year during the frenzy of price gouging by the oil industry, using Katrina as an excuse. Now the excuse is unrest in the Middle East, despite very large inventories and no shortages on the horizon.

But it is yielding one tremendous benefit, and the Republicans would have us believe that we all benefit: record profits for the oil industry. And since we are all now shareholders, according to the Republicans' theory of the world, we are all benefiting from the huge run-up in the prices of oil stocks and the dividends that are being paid by the oil companies. Unfortunately, most of the people I represent
